

C.I.A. Man Blocked at Williams
WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass.,

Oct. 26 (AP)—About 30 Williams College students prevented a Central Intelligence Agency representative from conducting interviews at the school today.

The C.I.A. representative, Harry Russell, canceled the interviews when he saw some 30 students gathered outside of the student counseling center.

He told college officials that 11 students had scheduled interviews and said he would make other arrangements to meet with them.
